

A decorative border of autumn leaves and berries surrounds the text. The leaves are in shades of orange, red, and yellow, with some acorns and small red berries interspersed among them.

To Our Esteemed Members of The American Legion Department of Arkansas,

With hearts full of gratitude and pride, we gather this Thanksgiving to reflect on the blessings that have shaped our journey this year.

We are thankful for unity. In times of transition and challenge, our Legionnaires stood together—resolute, respectful, and committed to the values that bind us.

We are thankful for modernization. Through strategic planning and collaborative effort, we've advanced our digital infrastructure, streamlined communications, and laid the groundwork for a more connected future.

We are thankful for service. From Posts to Districts, our members have continued to uplift veterans, families, and communities with unwavering dedication and compassion We are thankful for leadership. Guided by integrity and due process, we've upheld transparency and accountability, ensuring our organization remains a beacon of trust and honor. We are thankful for legacy. Every story shared, every ceremony held, and every Flag raised reminds us of the enduring spirit of those who came before and the responsibility we carry forward, May this season renew our strength, deepen our bonds, and inspire us to serve with even greater purpose and for God And Country With gratitude and respect,
